For Application for Teachers of Academic Excellence Incentive

1. Applicants shall possess the following qualifications:
  - (1) Full-time teachers and researchers in the school system.
  - (2) Applicants shall meet the following basic requirements to apply for Academic Excellence Incentive.
    - a. Average score in the Student Opinion of Instruction Survey over the past three years reaches 3.5 points or above (does not apply to newly appointed teachers).
    - b. Averages one Ministry of Science and Technology (MOST) (formerly known as the National Science Council) research project (or exhibition or performance) each year.
    - c. Averages one academic paper published in a SCI, SSCI, A&HCI, or SCOPUS journal (or judging or work collection), or published one book rated exceptional or above within the past three years.
2. The three-year timeframe of academic publications (papers accepted but not published are not counted) and other academic performances starts from November 1, 2017 to October 31, 2020.
3. Applicants are allowed to repeat the submission of incentives for “Teachers of Academic Excellence” and “Distinguished Talents”, but can only choose to get either one. If the amount of “Teachers of Academic Excellence Incentive” granted is greater than “Distinguished Talents Incentive”, the shortfall will be made up by institution fund.

4. Those with parental leaves taken in the past three years are allowed to postpone the timeframe to five years, according to the related regulations from “National Taiwan Normal University Distinguished Talent Incentive Policy”.
5. Those who have been rewarded should submit his or her research results to the Department of Research and Development’s publications or website before applying next time.
